

ANDREA TAPIA

Full Stack Developer | Digital Marketing

a.tapia.mallea@gmail.com /atapiam /atapiamallea Barcelona

ABOUT ME

Full Stack Developer specializing in the Java ecosystem (Spring Boot) and frontend development with React, with over 1,400 hours of hands-on software development training. My multidisciplinary background in development and digital marketing, together with my experience working with agile methodologies, allows me to combine technical judgment with business insight: I understand how an idea is communicated, how product strategy is defined, and how it is turned into agile, functional, and scalable tools.
